DEPARTMENT OF

SPEECH, LANGUAGE AND HEARING SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- ASHA CEU provider
- 38 publications among 7 faculty
- 8 year program reaccreditation (AUD and SLP programs)

RESEARCH EXPENDITURES

$1.6 MILLION

GRADUATES

3 PhD Rehabilitation Science

31 MA Speech Language Pathology

10 Audiology

58 BHS Communication Sciences and Disorders

Faculty Accomplishments

Traci Centanni

- New - DoD grant $381K
- New - Center for Cognitive Aging and Memory Grant

Susan Nittrouer

- Keynote speaker at Hearing4all Symposium in Hannover, Germany.

Candice Adams-Mitchell

- NIH (Artificial Intelligence/Machine Learning Consortium to Advance Health Equity and Researcher Diversity) AIM-AHEAD Hub-Specific Program

Karen Hegland

- Selected to attend HERS Leadership Institute
- Promoted to Full Professor

Michela Mir

- Brooks Center Rehabilitation Clinical Research Award

Charles Ellis, Molly Jacobs

- ASHA Editors Award for "Social Networks and Communication Impairment: Racial Differences Among Stroke Survivors.," Third consecutive year SLHS has won editors Award

Sharon DiFino

- Global Teaching Certificate
- Graduate Faculty status is Latin American Studies

Student Accomplishments

- Delaney Mohesky - Academy of Neurologic Communication Disorders and Sciences (ANCDS) Conference Student Fellow (one of 12 fellowships awarded nationally)
- Taylor Tiscareno – Audiology Research Travel Award (ARTA) for the 2025 ASHA Convention
- Ava Moran – NIDCD T35 Traineeship
- Bailey Fawcett – Sidekick Therapy Partners Scholarship
- Elizabeth Evans - 2025 PHHP Dean's Scholar, 2024 ASHA Research Mentoring Travel Award, ASHFoundation Scholarship ($10K), Edward R. Bouchet Honor Society